ORDER:

The Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, A.P, Hyderabad in his letters 1st read above has reported that Smt. D.Nagarajamma was appointed as Probation Deputy Tahsildar on 3-10-2007 in Karimnagar District and she was included and deferred in the Annual Panel of Tahsildars for the year 2010-2011, due to non passing the Departmental Tests within the prescribed period and requested the Government to relax the Rule 16(h) of APS&SS Rules in favour of Smt D.Nagarajamma, Pro. Dy. Tahsildar for Regularization of services and declaration of her probation from date of joining in PDT.

2. Every employee recruited in to a service has to pass the departmental tests within a period of 3 years including extension period of one year from the date of joining as laid down in Rule 17 (b) read with Rule 16 of the APS & SS Rules. As per Rule 6 and 7 of the A.P.Departmental Test Rules, 1965, the APPSC has to conduct the departmental tests twice in a year and notification of the said exams has to be issued in the month of January and July and examination has to be conducted in May and November in a year. As per the said rules, the results should be published on or before last Thursday of July for the examination conducted during the month of May and on or before last Thursday of January of the succeeding year for the examination conducted during the November of the previous year.

3. Government have examined the matter carefully and observed that Smt. D.Nagarajamma has appeared her last departmental test scheduled for May, 2010 session. The APPSC has actually conducted the examination on 12-12-2010 and published results on 7-5-2011. Had the departmental test been conducted on time in May, 2010 and the results published on time in July, 2010, the individual would have passed the departmental tests within 3 years from the date of her joining.

4. In the above circumstances, it is considered that the delay in passing the departmental tests is not due to the fault of the individual but due to delay in conducting of departmental tests by the APPSC. Since the delay in passing of departmental tests cannot be attributed to the individual it is decided to relax the Rule 16 (h) of A.P.State and Subordinate Service Rules 1996 in favour of Smt. D.Nagarajamma, PDT of Karimnagar District.

5. Accordingly, under rule 31 of APS & SS Rules, 1996, Government hereby order to relax the Rule 16 (h) of A.P.State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996 in favour of Smt. D.Nagarajamma, PDT of Karimnagar District and to declare that she shall be deemed to have completed her probation within the normal period of probation in the cadre of DT and commenced her probation from the date of her joining.

6. The Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, AP., Hyderabad shall take necessary action in the matter, accordingly.
